

ARIZONA 2009/2010 LISTINGS FOR THE
NATIONAL REGISTER OF HISTORIC PLACES
June 1, 2010

The National Register is the official Federal list of districts, sites, buildings, structures, and objects significant in American history, architecture, archaeology, engineering, and culture. National Register properties have significance to the prehistory or history of their community, State, or the Nation.

When the nomination is received at the National Register Office in Washington D.C. it is reviewed by the staff of the Keeper of the National Register. This process may take up to 45 days and listing notification may take up to 2 weeks.
